

METRO 911 OF KANAWHA COUNTY

Grievance Procedure under The Americans with Disabilities Act

This Grievance Procedure is established to meet the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. It may be used by anyone who wishes to file a complaint alleging discrimination on the basis of disability in the provision of services, activities, programs, or benefits by Metro 911 of Kanawha County (Metro 911). Metro 911's Personnel Policy governs employment-related complaints of disability discrimination.

The complaint should be in writing and contain information about the alleged discrimination such as name, address, phone number of complainant and location, date, and description of the problem. Alternative means of filing complaints, such as personal interviews or a tape recording of the complaint, will be made available for persons with disabilities upon request.

The complaint should be submitted by the grievant and/or his/her designee as soon as possible but no later than 60 calendar days after the alleged violation to:

Rick McElhaney, 200 Peyton Way, Charleston, WV 25309

Within 15 calendar days after receipt of the complaint, Rick McElhaney or his designee will meet with the complainant to discuss the complaint and the possible resolutions. Within 15 calendar days of the meeting, Rick McElhaney or his designee will respond in writing, and where appropriate, in format accessible to the complainant, such as large print, Braille, or audio tape. The response will explain the position of Metro 911 and offer options for substantive resolution of the complaint.

If the response by Rick McElhaney or his designee does not satisfactorily resolve the issue, the complainant and/or his/her designee may appeal the decision with 15 calendar days after receipt of the response to the Executive Director or his/her designee.

Within 15 calendar days after receipt of the appeal, the Executive Director or his/her designee will meet with the complainant to discuss the complaint and possible resolutions. Within 15 calendar days after the meeting, the Executive Director or his/her designee will respond in writing, and, where appropriate, in a format accessible to the complainant, with a final resolution of the complaint.

All written complaints received by Rick McElhaney or his designee, appeals to the Executive Director or his/her designee, and responses from these two offices will be retained by Metro 911 for at least 3 years.
