DISPUTES & ARBITRATION

- A. If, at any time, a difference of opinion or dispute shall arise between the parties to this agreement with respect to any right or obligation arising under this agreement, the question in dispute, if it cannot be settled between the parties themselves, may be referred to arbitrators consisting of three competent and disinterested persons, one of which persons shall be selected by the Owner, one by the Contractor, and the third by the two arbitrators thus chosen by the Owner and Contractor. The party desiring that any matter be submitted to arbitration shall give written notice thereof to the other party, stating therein the specific point or points in dispute and naming the person selected by said party as an arbitrator, and it shall be the duty of the other party, within fifteen days after receiving such notice, to agree in writing to submit the dispute to arbitration and to name an arbitrator. Payment of the expenses of such arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrators, shall be as directed by the board of arbitration, or a majority thereof.
